- 2) A sense of call to mission service.
- 3) Adequate educational preparation, preferably college and seminary training or the equivalent in experience and other training.
- 4) Thorough knowledge of the work of a Southern Baptist Church.
- 5) Knowledge of Association work from personal experience as a DOM or as a participating pastor or other Church leader.
- 6) Reasonable knowledge of Southern Baptist denominational life and willingness to continue to learn.
- 7) Ability to relate effectively to rural and small town Pastors and Churches.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 4) Work with Association leaders and committees in planning and conducting activities designed to strengthen the churches according to their needs, and to maintain effective mission ministries in the area.
- 5) Lead in planning and coordination of a calendar of Association activities to be presented each year to the annual meeting business session and printed in the minutes of the annual meeting as already provided for the By-Law number of the By-Laws Association.
- 6) Lead in training Association organizational leaders and committees.
- 7) Publish monthly a newsletter of the Association. The newsletter should contain news of interest, highlights of Executive Board action, treasurer's report, upcoming dates of Association activities, and other information and inspiration at the discretion of the DOM.
- 8) Provide counsel and help as reasonably requested by Pastors and Churches.

- 9) Assist in stewardship development in order to undergird the work of the Association and encourage growth in the support of mission causes through the Cooperative Program.
- 10) Assist in maintaining a Biblical evangelism concern in the Association.
- 11) Serve as denomination contact person in the Association relaying quickly news of interest to churches by use of monthly newsletter, reports to the Executive Board, or other communication as considered appropriate by the DOM.
- 12) A report of DOM activities and concerns will be made at each Executive Board meeting and an annual report will be presented by the DOM to the Association Clerk for inclusion in the "Book of Reports" for the annual meeting. The DOM will report regularly to the Missions Department of the TBC.
- 13) The DOM will demonstrate true commitment to the purpose of Association as prescribed in Article II, "Purpose", of the Constitution of the Association.

- 2) The call of the DOM of the Association is a indefinite one. The position of DOM himself, or the Executive Board. The DOM will give the Executive Board thirty (30) days notice if resignation is desired; and the Executive Board will give the DOM sixty (60) days notice if the DOM's resignation is called for.
- 3) The amount of salary and allowances will be worked out and presented for approval annually. It is suggested that the Missions committee and the Budget and Finance committee work together when negotiating a pay package with the DOM.
- 4) Four (4) weeks per year will be allowed, off the field, for revivals, world mission conferences and other such activities. Consideration of the Association calendar is suggested when such activities are scheduled by the DOM.
- 5) The DOM will be allowed two weeks paid vacation each year, with three weeks after five years of service. Vacation time cannot accumulate one year to the next, and payment will not be made for time not taken. Consideration of Association activities is suggested in the scheduling of vacation time by the DOM.
- 6) One day of sick leave with pay shall accumulate for each month of service to a total of ninety (90) days. Sick leave will be forfeited at the time of the DOM's resignation, or dismissal. The Association will not make payment for accumulated sick leave.
- 7) The DOM shall be entitled to receive and keep honorariums from revivals and from supply preaching when the church normally would provide and honorarium.
- 8) The work schedule may vary from week to week as need arises in the Association and Churches.
- 9) Due to the size of the Association and the rural setting of most of our Churches this agreement does not propose to regulate how many times the DOM can supply the pulpit, occasionally or successively in each Church, however, it is intended that the DOM will serve any Church as interim Pastor, but rather assist as requested by the Church in securing pulpit supply so that DOM time and attention can be equitably shared with other churches and Association responsibilities. It is suggested that the DOM compile and maintain a current list of licensed and ordained ministers, and lay speaker in the Association that are available for supply work.
- 10) The employment of the DOM shall be considered full time.
- 11) The Association treasurer will be the payroll officer and the DOM will report to the treasurer when vacation time and sick leave is used, so a record of leave may be maintained.

VI. SUPERVISION:

- 1) The DOM will be basically "self supervised".
- 2) The Missions committee will serve as an advisory committee to the DOM in all matters pertaining to terms of employment and this agreement.
- 3) The Association Executive Board will direct the Missions committee and the DOM, and the Association will be the final authority pertaining to all matters of the agreement

VII. MISCELLANEOUS:

- 1) All other working agreements which have been made between this Association and other DOM's are null and void.
- 2) This agreement shall be recorded annually in the Association minutes and may be amended as necessary by the Executive Board or in the annual meetings. 2009-2010 Truett Baptist WMU Report and Challenge

As this new year begins, we realize that we are blessed by the support and commitment of our individual churches, our Associational Missionary staff and Truett Association. We want to take this opportunity to thank you. We also want to thank the churches that hosted and attended WMU events during the 2008-2009 calendar. The Annual Quilting at Slayden and The Day of Prayer for International Missions at Trace Creek were blessings to attend! The Acteens Gathering at Connection proved to be very enlightening to say the least.

Truett has provided great leadership as recognized by the selection of many chosen to serve, even outside our Association. Our prayers still include: our Pastors and Families, Jeff and Regina Palmer and family (BGR), William Gray and Family (Associational Missionary), Joe Shannon and Family (Linkup Staff), Tammy Safiel (President for Tennessee WMU) and Brooke Cole (2009 -2010 Tn. State Acteen Panelist).

We know there is successful mission work all around the world sponsored by other sources and denominations, but the Cooperative Program and the mission of Southern Baptist is a part of our foundational heritage and the future. Jesus has called us to a Great Commission, so we must learn and teach; support in prayer and by giving; and follow through in action. As many have come to realize, our calling is not just a work for the WMU. It truly is a part of each individual's heart's work. Every man, woman, teen and child is a missionary with a calling...prepare and promote, help plant seeds, and work in the harvest through discipleship. This year has been exciting as we have seen more churches express interest in beginning new mission organizations and follow through with that purpose. Let us continue to work together to educate our members to the knowledge of their calling.

Please, help me share your church's work and activities at the Executive Board meetings. If you cannot be there, call me to give an account. What a blessing I had to see and hear about Trace Creeks' Adventures in Africa! And did you know Sylvia had a Car Hop? What else have we been missing?

Hope to see you as I try to visit in this new year.

Let's work till Jesus Comes,
Carmen Westerman

Tennessee Woman's Missionary Union Report

"Called to Love" was the 2008-09 theme for Woman's Missionary Union based on Matthew 22:37-39. WMU sought to challenge: (1) individuals to live out the unconditional love of Christ by loving God with heart, soul and mind; (2) individuals to engage others in authentic relationships that lead to a deeper level of involvement in missions ministry, witness, giving and prayer; and (3) individuals to build bridges for the cause of Christ through a study of Scripture that lead to a deeper level of commitment to missions involvement.

Tennessee WMU met in annual session March 21, 2009 at the Gatlinburg Convention Center. The theme was "Love Out Loud" with Page Hughes as the keynote speaker. Tammy Saffel from FBC, Waverly was elected President. Other elected officers include: Glenda Palmer from Nolensville, Recording Secretary; and Vice Presidents: Sheila Hall from Luttrell, Linda Robbins from West Point, and Andrea Young from Bolivar. State Acteens Panelists for 2008-09 included Sydney Saffel from FBC, Waverly and Kelly Burdette from FBC, Spring Hill. Bylaws were revised.

The 2008 annual church profile reported a total of 58,335 WMU members in Tennessee in 1,390 churches.

As of June 30, 2009 Tennessee Baptists contributed $1,458,723 to the 2008 Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions. The goal was $1,700,000. The theme for the 2008 Week of Prayer for State Missions was "Time to Tell the Story".

Currently there are thirty-one Christian Women's Job Corps and Christian Men's Job Corps sites in Tennessee. The state coordinator is Tracey Gholson.

Truett Association Disaster Relief Report

At the time of the last associational meeting we had a team traveling to Texas responding to Hurricane Ike. Three members worked for 5 days in the muck and devastation in Hampshire, Texas. While it was not as widely reported in the news media Ike was even more destructive than Hurricane Katrina.

The new year started out as a challenge for the disaster relief team with the ice storm that hit the area. On January 31st a team of 9 went to Union City, TN where they helped a family hit hard by the ice. Having such a large team assembled they were able to finish that job then move over and clean up the property of Second Baptist Church.

Our neighbors to the north in Kentucky were hit even harder. The team spent 3 days working in Benton and Princeton, KY. A total of 18 worked cleaning up the two towns with 5 working in Benton and 6 working one day in Princeton then 7 the next trip to the hard hit town. After each job as always the team prayed and witnessed with the families.

In April a force 4 tornado hit Murfreesboro, TN. A team of 6 responded on Good Friday. Using that Day as the focus of our message the team was able to witness as we cleaned up several homes in the hard hit area.

Thank God the rest of the year has been very calm compared to most years. On May 16th a team of 5 responded to Clarksville, TN after high winds did a lot of damage to trees in the area. I believe that every team member that responded to Clarksville will agree with me that the first job that day was the most emotional of any job the team has ever worked on. The home we were assigned was the home of a soldier and his family. He had returned home after a year and a half deployment to Afghanistan the night before to 9 trees down in his yard. We were told since we had so many jobs to do to only clean up in the back yard so the family could get in and out the back door. The team discussed the matter after learning of the soldier's service and voted unanimously that we could not leave that family's yard that way. When the team left all 9 trees were cut up and stacked neatly at the side of the yard.

Praying that God blesses us and keeps all harm and bad weather away, the team can use more members so when disaster does happen we can be ready, respond and spread God's love to all that need Him.

Tennessee Missions and Ministry

Once again consistent to heritage, the State Missions staff joined Tennessee Baptists in pursuing a mission passion throughout the year. Hundreds of churches led of the Holy Spirit responded to the Baptist axiom of local church autonomy, and literally went unto the utter most parts of God's world.

A mission dream became focused with the donation of 20 acres of land near Mt. Juliet Tennessee by the Don Davis family. The site, a future mission mobilization center gained new thrust through the launch of a capital fund-raising campaign.

Missions focus - long range- received affirmation through the Annual Convention gathering adoption of the five-year partnership agreement with West Africa. While we officially completed our gospel sharing season in Rio de Janeiro many churches continue ministry to the Brazilian city.

By maintaining constant monitoring of Cooperative Program gifts, the Executive Board One Servant Family took advanced steps to continue to provide effective ministry within limited resources. Simultaneously efforts were initiated to assist churches shepherding folk through challenging economic times, and always with the appreciation of the sacrificial giving of the Tennessee Baptist family.

Primarily due to the nation's economical recession the work of the Executive Board's Property Transition Committee continued at a slower pace.

Early in 2008, Executive Director-Treasurer James M. Porch, announced his transition toward a new ministry passion beginning in 2010, and the Administrative Committee initiated the process to select the next Executive Director-Treasurer.

A personal word from me to youThe intended destination in opening my Bible to Joshua focused on the insight, "You have not passed this way before" (Deuteronomy 3:4). I read on, allowing the next verse to capture my attention—"For tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you" (Deuteronomy 3:5).

At the exact right time, in the appropriate place, and aware of the mood of the tribes, God gave Joshua the message apparently the Hebrew people most needed to hear. Within our expectation of tomorrow abides the possibility of God's great, not yet but coming, blessings.

Originally leaning toward "You have not passed this way before," I had limited my perspective to dwell on now. True, ignoring the present creates danger. Nevertheless, our Heavenly Father seeks to acquaint, if not confront, His people with a balance—the wonder of tomorrow.

Earlier Israel heard the pronouncement, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain. Turn and set your journey..." (Deuteronomy 1:67) for God had placed the land before them.

Each Tennessee Baptist association of local churches has a land before their corporate and individual ministry, a local land and a land even beyond any believer's expectation.

Within this context, I hear the challenge of the Father—nurture your wonder for my tomorrows for you in the lands before you.

James Porch, Executive Director-Treasurer
